

Summer Camp

A place to have fun
while learning

Middle school students from Clifton and Hawthorne - currently in 6th and 7th grades - are invited to join in a fun, two-week day camp at Montclair State University, July 24 - August 4, 2017. Students will interview athletes, journalists and broadcasters and attend at least one sports event. They will write stories, blog and make videos to report on their activities. The camp is tuition-free and lunch is provided. Space is limited, so get your application in soon. The deadline for applications is April 30.

Where: ADP Technology Center,
University Hall,
Montclair State University

Times: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., Monday-Friday

Dates: July 24 - August 4, 2017

What: A no-tuition summer camp conducted by experienced teachers with a goal of inspiring students to write by writing about sports. This is the 12th summer for WoS camps in New Jersey.

Campers interview a Seton Hall basketball player

Applicant's letter of interest and biographical sketch

Be sure to put your name at the top of your essay page. The essay should be 250-500 words.

For new applicants - Letter of interest and biographical sketch: Tell us about you and why you wish to attend the program? On a separate sheet of paper, discuss what you expect to get from Write on Sports and what sports interests you have. (Participants are expected to care about sports or sportswriting, but they are not required to be participants in sports.) Include any extra-curricular activities in which you are involved. Describe yourself, what you enjoy, and your general interests.

For returning applicants - On a separate sheet of paper, please express why you feel you will benefit from a second year at Write on Sports camp and serve as a model for new students. In what way did the program have a positive impact on you? What is something you learned last year that you hope to improve on?

Return this form, with the letter of interest and biographical sketch, if required, and a copy of your most recent report card, by April 30 to:
